

P. M. A. DEMAND OLD JOBS FOR COAL DIGGERS

Miners Want To Work Under Bituminous Coal Code

Gillespie, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Petitioners demanding that striking members of the Progressive Miners of America be immediately returned to their old jobs were distributed today from the union's headquarters here.

The four major producing companies which have refused to recognize the Progressive Union were asked to give the men work under the bituminous coal code, which becomes effective Monday.

Speaking for the union, which was organized a year ago during an outbreak in the long continuing mine labor strife in central and southern Illinois, Secretary-Treasurer William Keck of East St. Louis said:

"We are petitioning under the terms of the N.R.A. to return to the work which rightfully belongs to Progressive members who were forced to strike by companies refusing to recognize the P. M. A."

"We claim that the jobs belong to the Progressives and not to men who were brought in after the strike started."

The national recovery administration says, as does the state law, that a miner has the right to choose his own organization and is entitled to work under it.

"We are merely asking the Peabody Coal company and all other operators in the state who forced the strike by their failure to recognize the P. M. A. to return our members to work at once."

Keck asserted that the petitions made no reference to the older and rival union, the United Mine Workers of America, and did not suggest that any member of the Mine Workers' Union be replaced.

The Progressive executive board completed its week-long session at Peoria and President Claude E. Peary left for Lanesville to address a meeting of Christian county local leaders.

Union leaders said they expected to locate the Progressive membership within a month under an expansion campaign which is to extend to other coal producing states. The petition and expansion plans were drafted at the Peoria meeting this morning.

Some members refused to say where organizers would be sent in other central and western states, but Keck declared that petitions for charter are pouring into our offices from many states.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—(P)—Progressive Mine Workers will not be hired in Peabody company mines unless they renounce their union, the operations manager of the company said today.

"We are signed up with the United Mine Workers of America," said J. F. Pettler vice president, "and that prevents us from hiring members of any other union."

"We will take the Progressives back if they pay fees for them, but they would have to come back as members of the other union."

"The Progressive Miners have been out more than a year," Pettler declared, "and they have forfeited their right to the jobs."

ROB EXPRESS MANAGER
Chicago, Sept. 29.—(P)—Six youthful henchmen, two of them armed with sawed-off shotguns, clubbed the manager of the Rob Express Co. today and escaped with $12,000 in cash.

Ten employees in the trucking company's offices, including several girls, were lined against the wall while the raiders searched for money.

J. W. Hart, manager, was struck with the butt of a gun when he told the bandits the company had no money in the office.

WEATHER
For Jacksonville and vicinity: The weatherman predicts cloudy and warmer weather, with probable showers today. Sunday will be partly cloudy and cooler.

The Norbury Sanitarium Weather Bureau report last night gave temperatures as: high 79; current 65 and low 45. Barometer readings were: A. M. 30.25; P. M. 30.13.

Illinois: Cloudy and warmer, followed by showers Saturday; Sunday partly cloudy, with cooler in north and central portions.

Indiana: Increasing cloudiness and warmer Saturday, probably followed by showers in afternoon or night; Sunday partly cloudy, cooler in north and central portions.

Wisconsin: Increasing cloudiness, warmer in east portion Saturday, possibly followed by scattered showers in afternoon or night; Sunday generally fair and cooler in north portion.

Iowa: Increasing cloudiness, warmer in extreme east portion Saturday, possibly followed by showers in afternoon or night in east portion; generally fair and cooler Sunday.

FRESH LABOR TROUBLES ARE FACING NRA

Aluminum Company Is Demanding Lower Wage Scale

By James T. Seligson
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, Sept. 29.—(P)—With the NRA confronted by a demand from the Aluminum company of America for lower wages than it is now paying, William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, today issued a statement in which he declared that the union would not accept any reduction in wages.

Meanwhile H. H. Johnson, the administrator who was at Walter Reed Hospital convalescing from an operation for an infection. He received visits from several of his staff members and directed to a secretary, O'Brien, to call him back at his desk Monday.

Ending public hearings on the case for the Aluminum industry, T. C. Kemp, the deputy administrator of Labor, today announced that the committee to settle differences between the Aluminum company of America, which is dominated by the Mellon interests, and the laboring trade.

The code submitted by the Aluminum company proposed a 25 cents an hour minimum wage, compared with 30 cents now being paid under President Roosevelt's emergency re-employment agreement.

The major differences between the producers and fabricators revolved on the sale price of ingot, fabricating costs, and the set-up of the authority for administering the code.

Green told the metal trades department of the federation that 1,500,000 members had been added in the last three months and that the drive for organization must continue to assure success of the recovery act.

Assessing the hour stipulations in codes were too long and wage provisions too low, Green added:

"We have to go through them again to bring reduction of hours so they will square with the purposes of the Industrial Recovery Act. We can't put the unemployed back to work on a 44-hour week."

In a separate statement, Green indicated the federal placed before President Roosevelt by the committee for the nation of a government subsidy for placer miners as an unemployment relief measure.

With the general retail and drug codes awaiting the return of Johnson for consideration of their price-regulating features, the farm administration made public the code for wholesale and retail grocers bearing similar provisions.

At the direction of President Roosevelt, the farm administration gave control of all codes applying to foodstuffs, with the NRA passing up on the wage and hour provisions. The recovery administration is to hold a hearing October 5 upon its section of the grocers' codes, and the farm administration on October 9.

These codes provide that a wholesaler may not sell merchandise at less than cost, plus two and one half per cent, and retailers would be required not to sell below cost plus 7 1/2 per cent.

Spokesmen for consumers at both the NRA and the agricultural administration have opposed these efforts at blocking indiscriminate price cutting.

SHERIFF NEEL IS RELEASED BY CONVICTS

Aged Man Was Forced To Accompany Four Fugitives

Hammond, Ind., Sept. 29.—(P)—Haggard, hungry and weak, Sheriff Charles Neel of Hamilton county, a captive of four of the 10 convicts who escaped from the Indiana state prison, was freed today and several hours later James Clark, one of his abductors, was captured here.

Neel was forced to hide by day and stumble through woods by night as his captors sought to elude the hundreds of police, militiamen and deputies who tramped northern Indiana counties.

He was released at 3 a. m. near Hobart and made his way to Gary where he identified pictures of Clark, a bank robber, Walter Dietrich, participant in the same robbery, Joseph Fox, serving a life term for bank robbery and John Burns, serving a life term for murder, as the men who held him prisoner.

Glads Over
Clark, stating he "was glad to get it over," was arrested here tonight by Hammond police who refused to reveal the tip that led to the apprehension. He was riding in a taxi which police trailed several blocks.

He was the first of the ten desperadoes to be apprehended.

The freeing of Neel and the apprehension of Clark spurred the hunt in Lake and Porter counties for the others at large. From Michigan City where the prisoners made their escape Tuesday after trucking guards a posse was sent out to aid state police and sheriff's deputies.

The search for another group of the convicts turned to Ohio as authorities received a report that six men believed to be the escaped convicts were seen in an automobile passing through a western suburb of Cincinnati. A few hours earlier an abandoned automobile near Brownstown, Ind., had been searched by five pairs of prison uniform trappers as clues to follow the trail of the convicts.

He told a story of hardship but added that the four convicts treated him with as much consideration as possible. He had not eaten from the time he was abducted until he arrived at nearby Gary late tonight.

CRISIS REACHED IN DISARMAMENT
SITUATION, CLAIM

Germany Plans To Demand Right to Arm Same As Neighbors

Geneva, Sept. 29.—(P)—League of Nations circles believed tonight that the crisis in the disarmament situation reached its peak as Germany announced that it would demand the right to arm itself as its neighbors.

The German minister, told German newspaper correspondents that he had departed that Germany will insist on the right to possess arms at a level to which neighboring countries eventually would descend. This was joined with the understanding that Germany would be entitled to begin construction of these arms when an agreement drawn up begins to function.

If this German attitude is adopted, it was recognized in league circles as meaning pressure would be brought to bear on France to begin the destruction of big guns, bombing planes and like categories, in addition to reducing the number of men under colors.

Some of the English delegates insisted tonight there should be no rearmament of Germany. A similar view was expressed yesterday by Joseph Paul-Boncour, French foreign minister.

It was revealed in the German quarters that the unofficial disarmament conferences which have been under way would be continued, but that "the fight for this principle of equality." This would involve the acquisition of military airplanes, now denied the Reich by the Treaty of Versailles.

The probability some concession may be made Germany in the matter of defense weapons was mentioned by one of the French representatives.

Meanwhile, Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, Chinese minister to France, told the League of Nations assembly that ominous clouds are rising on the far eastern horizon.

"The race for armaments has begun with the huge naval and air maneuvers, fleet concentrations, the fortifying of bases, and enormous increases in war expenditures," he said.

He criticized the Japanese invasion of Manchuria and mentioned that country's continued defiance of the assembly report classifying it as in violation of the pact of Paris.

"BUY NOW" CAMPAIGN
Decatur, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Merchants launched their "Buy Now" campaign in Decatur today with a parade witnessed by thousands of central Illinois residents.

Ten thousand people, most of them employees in business houses and industries, were in the line of march along with forty floats and ten bands.

Miss Neva June Appel of Alton, Ill., a Millikin University sophomore, was crowned "Queen Mira."

Cuban Soldiers Open Fire on Communists in Havana; Four Persons Killed; Many Wounded

Home to Renew War on Tammany

By John P. McKnight
Associated Press Staff Writer
Havana, Sept. 29.—(P)—Widespread and heavy firing throughout Havana today, that started when the Army set out to disperse thousands of communist demonstrators, resulted, according to a preliminary check, in the killing of four persons and the wounding of an undetermined number. Among the wounded was Joe Gibson, 46, an American newsreel photographer.

The clatter of machine guns and the firing of rifles and pistols reduced uptown Havana to a scene of the wildest disorders as students and ABC radical members joined the heaviest army forces ever to patrol Havana streets.

The early outbreaks of shooting centered along Reina street, where communists were reported to have sniped at the soldiers from the top of the Anti-Imperialist League headquarters at Reina and Gervasio streets.

The communist demonstration was in honor of Julio Antonio Mella, a student leader killed in Mexico in 1929, whose ashes were brought here this week in tin boxes.

The dead included a 15-year-old boy.

Later in the afternoon heavy firing began around the Diario de La Marina newspaper building where the Associated Press offices are situated.

The demonstration was to have climaxed at a brick obelisk in the park where Mella's ashes were to have been buried. The soldiers, however, stopped men working on the memorial, destroyed it and then posted guards to see that no one approached.

Three hundred soldiers had been called out to patrol the streets, but what started the shooting could not be determined.

As rifle pistol and machine gun fire began popping from a number of points, the thousands in the streets, including throngs of curious not associated with the communists, rushed for cover. A general strike called by the national confederation in conjunction with the Mella memorial demonstration had closed virtually all doors against them.

The firing started soon after the communist carrying banners attacking the Ramon Grau San Martin government. United States Ambassador Sumner Welles, "Yankee Imperialism" and Chancellor Adolf Hitler of Germany, left the headquarters of the Anti-Imperialist League.

The original 1,000 marchers were augmented by other hundreds as the procession moved along Reina street. Mr. Welles reached his embassy about a mile from the center of the disturbance during the height of the confusion. He received reports of the disorders immediately upon entering the building. Consistently shooting was reported from the residential section where a number of Americans make their homes.

An extra guard was placed at the presidential palace, cavalry galloped widely through the streets and an army tank and machine gun rumbled into position at the scene of the disturbance.

A heavy rain started falling while the excitement was at its highest pitch.

A communist leader said Mella's ashes, which were brought here this week from Mexico in tin boxes, were safe, despite the fact the soldiers did not allow their interment in the incomplete brick obelisk.

The heaviest firing in the second outbreak near the newspaper plant, lasted more than half an hour.

Firing also was reported from other parts of the capital.

What precipitated the second outbreak of firing could not be learned immediately, but the guns being fired at a low level instead of in the air, as was the case in the first outbreak, indicated that the firing was aimed at the crowd.

Three firemen were shot and wounded when they turned fire hoses on the throngs gathering at the emergency hospital, where most of the wounded were being taken.

Soldiers cleared the communists and the workers out of the National Labor Federation building on Zulueta street late in the afternoon.

SHIPBUILDER THINKS WIFE, SON KIDNAPED

George M. Cox Offers $25,000 Reward For Their Return

New Orleans, Sept. 29.—(P)—George M. Cox, 55 year old shipbuilder of New Orleans and Chicago, returning from a five week vacation in Cooperstown, Ill., found his 27-year-old wife, their two year old son, George, Jr., and Mrs. Cox's parents, missing.

Disclosing their disappearance today, Cox offered $25,000 reward for their safe return. He expressed fears that they had been kidnaped, but friends said they believed the absent quartet had gone away on a vacation of their own.

A watchman on the Cox property on Lake Pontchartrain said Mrs. Cox and her son and parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Goertz, who had been visiting her son into the family automobile late last Saturday afternoon and drove away with Mrs. Cox at the wheel. They told the watchman they were going to spend the week-end on the Mississippi coast.

Draws Large Sum
Cox, who came here from Chicago two days ago, said that he had been unable to find any trace of them through friends and relatives here and on the coast and that he had learned Mrs. Cox had drawn $5,000 in cash from their joint bank account on the day before she left. He said she also was wearing jewelry valued at $10,000.

Police, called by Cox, made a thorough search of the city and suburbs for the missing four and the aid of police in other cities was asked today as Cox announced a $25,000 reward for his family's safe return.

The missing wife is the sister of Mrs. Cox. They were married in 1930 after Cox and his first wife were divorced.

Cox made a fortune in New Orleans selling malt extracts before he became a shipbuilder. Since the return of her husband, she has been supporting her family on the Great Lakes.

Cooperstown, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Relatives of George M. Cox, New Orleans shipbuilder, who has been visiting here, had not been informed today of the disappearance of his wife and son and Mrs. Cox's parents in the Louisiana city.

Cox visited on several occasions with his sister, Mrs. Lela Parks, here during the last two months, dividing his time between here and Chicago, where he has shipping interests. His family, however, did not accompany him on these visits.

Recently one of the Cox passenger boats, the Isle Royale, was held in the Chicago river under government surveillance pending the outcome of a federal court suit in which several sailors employed on the boat sought payment of wages in full and created a disturbance. They were quelled by police.

CHICAGO LAWYER ORDERED TO GIVE
TRUTHFUL ANSWERS

Portion of Frank L. Tuttle's Testimony Before Grand Jury Disclosed

Chicago, Sept. 29.—(P)—After Frank L. Tuttle, Chicago attorney, had told the federal grand jury he represented the Pullman company in tax reduction hearings before the state tax commission only so long as William H. Malone was its chairman, Tuttle, ordered by Judge John P. Barnes today to submit to further questioning and gives the jurors full and truthful answers.

The government disclosed a portion of Tuttle's grand jury testimony in mentioning the court to cite the attorney for contempt if he failed to give thorough and honest testimony.

The transcript showed that Tuttle again denied he had split fees with Malone, investigation of whose income brought the citation of four witnesses for contempt.

Tuttle in open court today, charged he had been submitted to a "bribe and degree" by the government, but later said he had been treated courteously.

In testimony yesterday, the Transcript revealed that Tuttle said he was paid $5,000 by the Pullman company in 1929 and again in 1930. He admitted cashing both checks and said he spent the money in the usual course of events and lost large sums in speculation. He also stated that he had disposed of $2,000 out of each of four checks for $5,000 from the Pullman company.

Each check was given to distributors "among party officials in towns and communities" where the gas company operated.

They were mayors, chiefs of police, commissioners of streets and members of town committees," Tuttle testified.

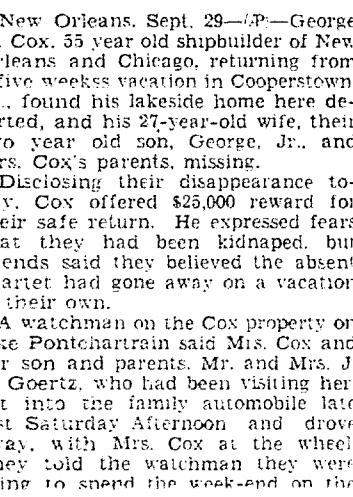

Under questioning, he said he began to work for the Pullman company when Malone became chairman and ceased when Malone retired from office.

In other words, your services no longer were required after Malone stepped out of office," he was asked. "Well, I guess they were not," Tuttle said.

WILL RAISE SALARIES
New York, Sept. 29.—(P)—The Socony-Vacuum Corporation, effective October 1, will restore the 10 per cent reduction in the pay of salaried workers which took effect around June 1, last, it was announced today. Beyond admitting the company's purpose to raise the salaries to their former level, officials would not comment.

TEN TRUCKS AND PASSENGER CARS
IN COLLISION

Three Men Injured, 100 Hogs Killed, 10 Autos Wrecked

Aurora, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Ten trucks and passenger automobiles piled up in a succession of collisions a half mile east of Aurora today, injuring one driver probably fatally and causing property damage estimated at $10,000.

The series of wrecks was started at 1:30 a. m. when L. W. Talbot, truck driver from Toulon, Ill., bringing a load of hogs to the Chicago stockyards, stopped on the Ogden avenue highway because a thick fog and a drift of smoke from burning peat beds along the road made driving perilous.

A moment later another truck loaded with 100 hogs and driven by Ellis Johnson of Bradford, Ill., nosed through the fog and smashed into Talbot's truck. Five hogs were killed and Johnson was badly cut and bruised.

While the wreckage still littered the four lane pavement, Walter Gehr of 1838 S. Euclid avenue, Berwyn, Ill., drove his roadster into a runaway lane and the car turned over. He was not hurt.

Meanwhile someone managed to telephone for Aurora police. Before they arrived, Ralph Van Demark of Atchison, Ill., and his load of 80 hogs plowed into the three wrecked cars but he did not cut down the speed and no further injuries were incurred.

Next came Frank Wood of Hinckley, homebound bound from Chicago with an empty truck. He sighted the ruins ahead and heard the squeals of skidding tires and found his truck stopped in the west bound outer lane and offered help.

This left three lanes blocked. Elmer Reiser of Naperville came along bound eastward saw the crowd at the roadside and thought there was a hijacking on. Believing it no place for him, he stepped on the gas and swerved to the left side of the road to speed past. He crashed head on into Wood's parked truck and was hurled through the top of his car, injured probably fatally.

Ray Galloway of Lost National, Ia., had also parked at the side of the highway with 100 head of hogs and Reiser's car sideswiped his.

It was four hours before the police were able to open a lane for further traffic. Then a Dairy company truck driven by Nicholas Pauls of Aurora was nosing through and was hit by a truck driven by William Neufeld, Chicago. There was not much damage done, but the pair stopped then and there to argue about it.

While they argued, wreck number ten happened. Ernest Costello of Chicago crashed into the two stalled trucks with his empty one, shunting Neufeld's into a ditch 60 feet away.

Costello was arrested and fined $5 and costs for reckless driving.

Repopulation: one man may die, two were slightly injured, 100 hogs killed and plenty more astray, 10 automobiles wrecked.

PLEADS GUILTY
Benton, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—John Moore of Herrin pleaded guilty to a burglary charge here today and was given an indeterminate sentence by Circuit Judge Ramsey. After he entered his plea, Lucille and Leona Huey of Herrin were released from jail where they had been held pending charges of assisting in a jail break for Moore. Authorities said Moore confessed the girls gave him the money to buy saws with which to cut two bars of his cell. The escape plot was discovered before Moore attempted to escape.

Bert Courier, of the Alexander community, transacted business here yesterday.

URSCHEL JURY
HAS REACHED
VERDICT, CLAIM

Oklahoma City, Sept. 29.—(P)—The Charles F. Urschel kidnaping trial jury was reported unofficially tonight to have reached a verdict after less than two and one-half hours deliberation.

No verdict will be announced before 10 a. m. tomorrow, after, as Federal Judge Edgar S. Vaughn asked that he not be disturbed after 5:30 p. m.

The jury at 7:45 p. m. had returned from the federal building to its hotel. The members lounged in several groups in a half dozen rooms. The bailiffs in charge said they had been under strict orders to keep the information secret and no official confirmation of the verdict was obtainable elsewhere.

The jurors' informal appearance lent credence to the report of a verdict because Judge Vaughn had instructed them to deliberate until 10 p. m. less they agreed before that hour.

The jury received the case at 4:10 p. m. for the first test of the new "Lindbergh Law" providing a maximum penalty of life imprisonment on conviction of kidnaping.

The fate of the two defendants was placed in the hands of the twelve farmers and business men, after Federal Judge Edgar S. Vaughn had delivered a lengthy charge and District Attorney Herbert K. Hyde had made a final plea for a "verdict of guilty."

Judge Vaughn ordered the jury to reach a verdict by 5:30 p. m. (CST) tonight to be held until tomorrow morning 5:30.

He instructed the jury to deliberate until 5:30 p. m. before going to dinner and if no verdict is arrived at by 10 p. m. to retire and resume deliberations at 9 a. m. tomorrow.

Judge Vaughn instructed the jury that "not all the parties need to be unanimously planned together originally in order to constitute a conspiracy."

"The acts of one conspirator," he said, "bind another, even though the others are passive in accomplishment of the overt acts."

"You are instructed that so long as any of the ransomed was in the hands of the alleged conspirators and they were continuing their efforts to exchange same, the conspiracy was in full force and effect as to such conspirators."

"It is necessary that you find, however, that each said defendant was actually part of the conspiracy because you find him guilty; that he entered into the original form or entered into the conspiracy of the conspiracy's existence."

Judge Vaughn passed over the cases of Harvey Bailey and Albert Bates with little discussion, but devoted some time and exposition to the cases of the Shannons—the father, R. G. Shannon, his wife, Ora, and his son, Armon.

"You are instructed," he told the jury, "that the reasons and excuses that they gave—and intimidation—for holding Urschel prisoner on Skelly, Waco, Texas, farm, do not constitute a defense at law."

"A threat of future injury is not enough."

The judge was lenient with the five Minneapolis and St. Paul defendants—San Kronick, Sam Kozberg, Clifford Skelly, Ernest Berman and Isadore Blumenfeld.

"You must find that these defendants had actual knowledge of the kidnaping of Mr. Urschel, and knew the money they received was part of the ransom paid before you may find them guilty," he said.

DUTCHMAN ADMITS
SETTING FIRE TO GERMAN REICHSTAG

Man Claims He Used His Coat And Shirt To Start Blaze

By W. E. Brockmann
Associated Press Staff Writer
Leipzig, Germany, Sept. 29.—(P)—A reluctant admission that he had set fire to the Reichstag building last February, ripping apart ever his coat and shirt to serve as tinder, was drawn today from Marinus Van Der Lubbe, Dutch anarchist, who was charged with setting the fire, before the supreme court.

Presiding Judge Buener, reading an earlier confession, suddenly demanded:

"Do you admit setting fire yourself to the Reichstag?"

"Yes," the Dutchman replied, almost inaudibly.

Later Van Der Lubbe said, "I had no intention of so doing when I awoke that day. The idea came to me as I walked past the Reichstag at 2:00 o'clock. I spent the afternoon in a suburb, returning to the city at 8:00 o'clock."

Two large charts were mounted back of the Judges' bench to aid in following the confession as it was read by Buener.

The confession said Van Der Lubbe admitted climbing up the west facade of the Parliament building making his way to a broad ledge and then smashing a window to gain admittance.

The fire, the document continued, was set with matches and tinder, the Dutchman matching in an irregular course through the building and into a number of rooms. He made his way to the cellar, then into the piano hall and thence into the Bismarck room, where he was captured.

Roy Robinson, of Orleans, transported business here Friday.

No New Music

Dr. Frederick A. Stock, who has for 29 years directed the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, has returned from Europe to open the new season, and makes the surprising statement that if there is any music worthy of reproduction on his programs being written today, it is being written in America. He went to Europe in search of new music for his audiences this winter, but he came back empty handed. Music that can be used by great orchestras is not being produced in Europe today. Dr. Stock announces that the music-loving public will have to be satisfied with the repetition of old masterpieces this season. He says the reason of material at hand that sort of program should be enjoyable.

Europe is in such a turmoil that great music cannot be composed. Men's minds are occupied with other matters and what is true of music is also true of literature and art. The entire world is in a transition period, and such times have never been fruitful in cultural assets of a permanent character.

Hard times can nourish great artists, and culture often thrives on hardships. But there must be a rather settled condition of life and a fair certainty of events. Early American literature was born in adversity, but they were products of an age when life in New England was settled and secure.

The great musical masterpieces of Europe were produced during periods of comparatively stable government in Germany and France, and often have the arts flourished under despots. But always the social and political order has been fairly stable. Today society is not sure of itself. Men are not sure of their government, or of their economic and social structures. Life is too uncertain for culture. Dr. Stock's failure to find no great modern music in Europe is only one of the many indications of the seeming unrest throughout the world.

Foreign Husbands

Mary McCormick, one of those American heiresses wedded to an European title, is seeking separate maintenance from Prince Serge Midy, and he is suing her for divorce. In the meantime she gives out an interview concerning the double character of the average foreign husband. She says that before he is married, he is a Dr. Jeckle, but afterwards he turns out to be a Mr. Hyde.

Your suave European nobleman is a better love maker than the more abrupt American. He has a way with the women that is taking. But once he is married, he begins to show his real point of view. He regards a woman as inferior and feels it his duty to lord it over his wife and to boss her in the slightest details of her life.

Now American men and women have been reared in an atmosphere of good fellowship and from early times have worked together for the best things in life. The women of America are not used to being bossed, but they like to be treated as equals. In fact they have earned out an interview because they have made their contribution to American civilization with an unstinting hand.

Europe has given its women no such opportunities. European men do not have much patience with the independent ways of American women once they are married to them. Soon the title the girl hoped to gain becomes an empty name, and unhappiness is her portion. It took bitter experience to teach one American girl these things. Perhaps her revelations may prove a warning to others.

Battle Lines For Campaign
Hastily Redrafted By Leaders

By Francis A. Jamieson
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
New York, Sept. 29.—(P)—Battle lines in the mayoralty campaign were hastily redrafted tonight as Tammany Hall and Fusion leaders sought to counteract the entrance into the race of Joseph V. McKee, who declared war on "bossism, both democratic and republican."

After two days of uncertainty, McKee, mortgage banker and former acting mayor, declared himself a candidate against Mayor John P. O'Brien, Tammany choice, and Fiorello H. LaGuardia, Fusion nominee.
"I'm in this fight and I'm going to win," said McKee at a press conference late today. "My heart and soul are in it and I'm very enthusiastic."
Asked the meaning of Edward J. Flynn, Bronx leader and his sponsor, when he asserted he would not be dominated by any leader, McKee said:
"When I said 'any leader' I emphatically included Ed Flynn."

McKee asked to comment on the attack on his candidacy by Samuel Seabury, Fusion master mind, who charged a third candidate would split the LaGuardia anti-Tammany vote and assure O'Brien's reelection, McKee said:
"I have the greatest respect for Mr. Seabury and I think he has for me. Reading the statement, I think he didn't get the true picture."
McKee said he would resign "immediately as president of the Title Guarantee and Trust company, and would announce Monday his plans for the campaign, including whether he would run with other candidates for local office."

The former aldermanic president said he had not discussed his candidacy with postmaster general James A. Farley, reported to have given him tacit endorsement.

REVIEW SHOWS
MONTH'S TRADE
AS INCREASING

Note Declines Checked
In Many Lines Of Business

New York, Sept. 29.—(P)—The Dun & Bradstreet Inc. Weekly Trade Review said today that September is closing better than it opened under accelerated industrial recovery and more vigorous consumer buying.
"The desire to build inventories in advance of rising markets," asserted the review, "usually has come to an end, giving a steadier tone to buying movements and a firmer base on which to plan future operations."

"The comparatively large number of banks which still are closed or operating under restrictions continue a perpetual handicap of no mean proportions in many districts, while plans for expansion are being held in abeyance by the higher collateral requirements for loans, pending clarification of the entire banking situation."

Decline Is Less
"Volume of chain specialty stores was about the same as for the week preceding, but sales of chain grocers were lower. While some of the department stores noted the usual let-down of the fall season in the sales totals of some items, the extent of the decline was less marked than at this time a year ago."

"A few of the leading industrial indices are beginning to turn upward again, while others are moving downward sluggishly."

"There was a rather sharp pick up this week in the sales of shoes, while millinery movements in good volume are purchases of hosiery, jewelry, handbags and toilet accessories increased."

The strong demand for high grade furs and silk goods, which started about the middle of August, has expanded to such an extent that the current season is expected to be the best in a number of years. Sales of men's clothing have reached the largest total in three years, with little obstruction seemingly provided by the higher prices placed on the medium class of garments."

TO LEGION MEETING

Jacksonville Legionnaires and wives who will attend the annual national convention of the American Legion at Chicago next week include Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hauck, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hauck, Mr. and Mrs. Mary Herring and Mrs. Oren T. Wright, who will leave for the convention city today.

LEAVES FOR NORTHWESTERN

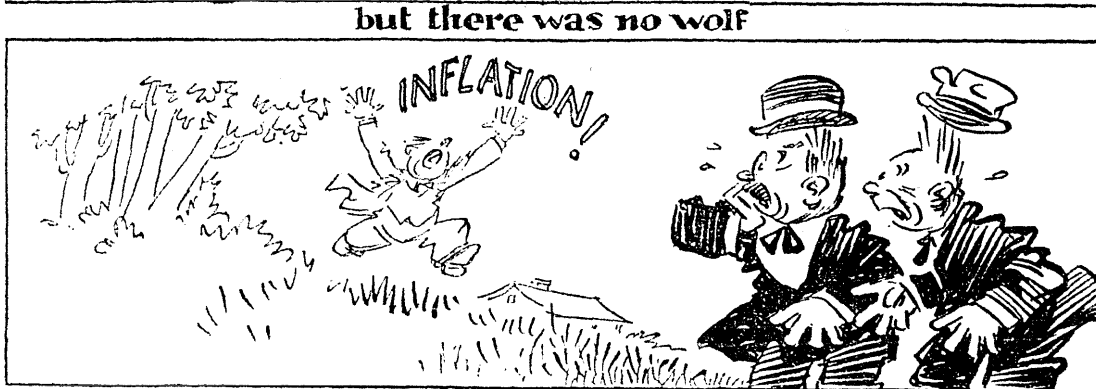

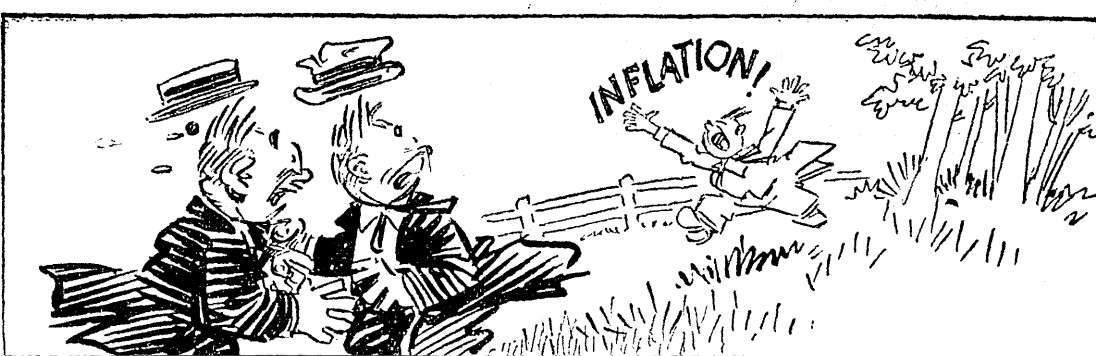

Burnette Bunch is planning to leave the city this evening for Evanston, where he will resume his studies at the Northwestern Dental School. Mr. Bunch will drive to Chicago with Jack Vickery, who plans to spend several days there visiting the World's Fair.

Harry H. Koch, of Bluffs, was a Friday afternoon business caller in the city.

Prepare Porkers For Distribution To The Needy

By ROY F. HENDRICKSON
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Washington, Sept. 29.—(P)—After spending nearly $50,000,000, the government steps out of its role as purchaser of pigs and sows today at the close of trading in livestock centers.

By nightfall, the farm administration expects to have as a result of a month's purchases nearly 6,000,000 pigs weighing up to 100 pounds and more than 150,000 sows sent to farrow.

In the storage rooms of packing plants which have processed the swine the administration will have on hand upwards of 100,000,000 pounds of pork prepared for distribution to the needy by the federal relief administration.

Prepare New Plan
Already a new program aimed to control future production of hogs and control in principle as hog feed, was nearly completed by the administration's economists and attorneys. It was scheduled to be announced within the next ten days and comprises no more government purchases but the payment rather of benefits to both hog and corn growers in return for agreements to cut production during the next year.

Administrators also will make early announcement of the rate of a hog processing tax which will supply the funds for the purchasing program. A tax of a half cent a pound has been under consideration for this purpose. Payments for hog purchases have been made in advances from the treasury which must be repaid from the proceeds of the processing tax.

The long range program may require a processing tax of one and one-half cents a pound bringing a total processing tax of two cents a pound or $2 hundredweight into being within a short time.

St. Louis Situation
St. Louis, Sept. 29.—(P)—The government went out of the hog business in the St. Louis area today, after spending about $2,197,500 in purchasing 468,500 hogs.

The purchase was part of the farm administration's national program to boost pork prices by removing hogs from the market.

Shipments of cured meat for distribution to the needy will begin about October 7, under the supervision of federal authorities in cooperation with state relief agencies. The meat will be drawn from packing houses as needed.

Only a little more than one fourth of the pigs purchased were cured for meat, the remainder, light weight pigs, being tanked. When the government closed its buying today, there were applications for shipment of 500,000 head still on file at the National Stock Yards.

FUNERAL NOTICE
Funeral services for George M. Young, who passed away Wednesday night at his home 448 Lorton avenue, will be held from the Bethel A. M. E. church on Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. John W. Kirk and Rev. G. W. Brewer will officiate. Interment will be made in the East cemetery.

The body will remain at the Washington Funeral Home, 531 South West street, until the time of the funeral.

says:

To the Editor of The Jacksonville Journal-Courier:
Beverly Hills, Cal., Sept. 29.—With a white mouse rising up and knocking the ears down on six rattlesnakes, it may be the turning of a new era, a taxpayer is liable to become arraigned and hump off about half the political payroll, then when kidnapers admit where 75 thousand bucks are buried, and it was really there and had been for several months, why that shows we have somebody in the country that can live off their income and not have to dip up their principal.

But when it costs the government 66 thousand dollars to hire a steamship company to carry one pound of picture post cards across the water, why it would be cheaper to cable at government expenses.

NATION PLANNING TO REOPEN BANKS
IN MANY STATES

Washington, Sept. 29.—(P)—Pushing the administration's plans to reopen banks of the nation and expand purchasing power, the treasury has completed details for reorganization of 375 national banks in 37 states.

The action followed the recent administration announcement that it would hasten the reopening of banks to release nearly two billions of dollars still tied up in the closed institutions.

Announcement of the approval of the reorganization plans was made by J. F. T. O'Connor, comptroller of the currency, whose department has been expanded to speed up the reopening program.

O'Connor did not say how soon the banks would be open for business, contenting himself with making public the list and saying the plans for reorganization had been approved by his office.

It is now necessary for the banks to follow the plans, as outlined, before they can receive licenses to reopen.

The last report of the general banking situation showed 13,080 banks of all kinds were operating Sept. 22 on an unrestricted basis with deposits of $1,390,750,000. At that time 2,575 banks with deposits of $1,765,669,000 still were unlicensed.

DEMOCRACY DYING,
WAR IMMINENT, DR.
MCLELLAND SAYS

The decline of democracy and the imminence of war were the two most vivid general impressions brought back by Dr. C. P. McClelland from his recent visit in Europe, he told the Jacksonville Rotary club at its meeting Friday. The speaker was introduced by E. E. Crabtree, chairman of the international service committee of the club.

Dr. McClelland said he found democracy on the decline, especially on the continent of Europe. France and Switzerland still have it, but there are vast areas where it is dead. Its principles have been sent away by the machine guns, and the bullet has replaced the ballot. Terrorism has replaced the freedom of speech and press.

Everywhere, the speaker said, he saw soldiers. The streets of Berlin were alive with marching men. While Germany has few weapons, her men are perhaps the best drilled in Europe today. There is an imminence of war. All nations except Germany are spending money today on armaments more than they were before the World War. Germany has eleven frontiers and every neighbor is armed to the teeth.

There is also a grave threat of war outside Europe. Russia does not want to fight, but everywhere in that country Dr. McClelland heard that if Japan attempts to take a foot of Russian soil, there will be war. Sometime ago a company of Jap soldiers crossed the border; they never went back. There are today 180,000 Russian troops mobilized on the Manchurian border.

Dr. McClelland said that Germany has suffered six great blows. She has a population of 65,000,000 people, and altogether there are a hundred million Germans in Europe. Large German elements are ruled by other nations. Her geographical position is not advantageous.

The first blow was the loss of life in the war. There were 22 million men killed and 22 million wounded, and a large proportion of them were Germans. Germany also lost the war, though she does not admit it. The Nazis say it was a far greater honor for Germany to have withstood 22 campaigns for more than four years than it was for those nations to win the war.

The treaty of Versailles was the third blow. It is an iniquitous treaty, through it Germany lost a third of her European territory and all her colonies, 1,000,000 square miles. She was assessed 32 billions in reparations.

The fourth blow was the inflation of 1923. No European nation today would tolerate inflation; they have all learned a bitter lesson. Inflation wiped out the German middle class. Of course the middle class in this country has suffered from the depression, but it is still the vast majority. Communism would be impossible here, but the United States might go fascist.

The world depression hit Germany when she was coming out of inflation and beginning to have hopes of prosperity. Finally, came political chaos and the rise of the Nazis.

BOND ISSUE IS PRACTICAL AND SOUND; HORNER

Planned To End High Cost of Unemployment Relief

By ROBERT P. HOWARD
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Division of gasoline tax funds was regarded by the Horner administration today as the only practical and sound plan for meeting without delays the high cost of unemployment relief.

Despite an injunction suit on file in circuit court here, attacking a similar diversion of funds, Governor Horner and his advisers are giving their unwavering support to the $30,000,000 bond issue which will be presented as a relief measure at the special session of the legislature next Tuesday.

Administration leaders expressed confidence that retirement with gas tax money of the $20,000,000 relief issue approved in a referendum last November would be upheld.

Administration leaders say if the diversion method is not followed, the property tax must be increased to raise the millions of dollars required to supplement sales tax revenues and federal grants.

Dispute Injunction
The injunction attack against the 1932 bonds was filed recently by unrevealed persons who contend that the three cent gas tax should be used only on roads. If the injunction is upheld, and upon appeal, it would be possible to take similar action against the proposed $30,000,000 issue, which is to be of a similar nature.

The counties which receive relief funds from the bond issue are to receive a proportionate share of the gas tax receipts.

September collections from the three-cent-a-gallon tax on gasoline are the third highest since the law went into effect in 1925. Director Joseph J. Rice of the finance department announced.

To date, $2,929,308 has been received this month. Totals were higher only for July and August, 1931. Reports of decreasing revenues from gas taxes are coming from other states.

Special Session Limits
The call for the special session limits relief legislation to measures which would "provide funds for the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission."

Under this restriction there is a possibility that it would bar the Lantz bills, which would authorize additional taxes in Cook county for local relief. Such taxes, proposed by Senator Simon E. Lantz, Conservator, would go to the local governments and be expended by them, rather than by the relief commission.

Plans of some downstaters to ask for repeal of the sales tax might also be barred, since the relief section of the official call provided only for the enactment of laws to raise funds. Other sections dealing with recovery, public works and other issues permit the repeal and amendment of existing statutes as well as passage of new laws.

Unemployment insurance legislation was recommended in the final report of Governor Horner's committee on unemployment, which was appointed before his inauguration.

Greater attention to furnishing work for persons receiving relief was another of the recommendations, several of which were included in the call for the special session.

BUS LINES ENTER PROTEST AGAINST NEW SPEED RULES

Chicago, Sept. 29.—(P)—The order of the Illinois Commerce Commission in restricting the speed of buses operating in the state today brought protest from heads of bus lines that enforcement would ruin their business.

Chester Moore, president of the Illinois Bus Operators' Association, said the "horse and buggy" pace set by the order limiting buses to ten miles an hour in business districts, fifteen miles an hour elsewhere in corporate limits, twenty-five miles an hour on rural highways and eight miles an hour on curves not over 200 feet in radius upon the 1,575 operators of lines in the state, but also upon the thousands of daily riders.

W. F. Lennon, attorney for the Greyhound Lines, said the buses, held down to low speed would block traffic and become a hazard to traffic.

"The greatest safety and the greatest convenience are obtained by having the buses move with traffic," he said. "Connecticut found this to be true and connected with the lowest highway accident record of any state in the union."

The order is to become effective Oct. 1.

TO EXAMINE LOONEY
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 29.—(P)—Governor Horner today asked Dr. Frank J. Jirka, State Health Director, to make an examination of the physical condition of John P. Looney or Rock Island convict in Joliet penitentiary for whom a pardon has been asked. Friends of Looney say he is critically ill.

The governor instructed Jirka to disregard Looney's record and make a medical report.

DR. CARL BLACK'S
NEW BOOK BASED ON CASE RECORDS

Thursday the first copy of a new book by a Jacksonville author was received here. The title is "Record of Librarians Manual. A guide to Organizing, Classifying and Filing Clinical Records and Medical Literature," by Carl E. Black, A.M., M.D., F.A.C.S.

This book is largely the outgrowth of the records of patients at Passavant Memorial hospital where the author has been chairman of the Records Committee for many years.

The book is "dedicated to the Hospitals of the United States and Canada that are seeking standardized records" and there is a forward by Dr. M. T. MacEachern, Associate Director of the American College of Surgeons in charge of Hospital activities in the United States and Canada, and by Dr. Clifford U. Collins of Peoria. Both men are well and favorably known to the Medical profession of Jacksonville.

The preface is written by Dr. Harry P. Ritchie, president of the Western Surgical Association and a prominent surgeon of St. Paul, Minnesota.

The publisher is the Bruce Publishing Company of St. Paul who are exclusive publishers of medical journals and medical books.

The book consists of three parts: Part one: "Instructions to Record Librarians," in which the details of conducting this important department of the modern hospital is given under numerous sub-headings.

The average citizen will not be much interested in such matters until some relative or friend has been a hospital patient, and important and trustworthy information arises every day in the life of the individual. Such records also become important in the demand between hospitals to establish the data of a previous illness or of an operation.

Hospital records are frequently consulted to trace individuals and families. The family history is always a part of the record, and is usually given by the patient or a member of the immediate family. When questions arise the average citizen frequently finds himself vitally interested in the completeness and accuracy of hospital records.

Part Two is a medical classification especially adapted to hospital records, but which may also be used in classifying medical literature.

Part Three is a comprehensive and detailed index by which any medical subject may easily be placed in its appropriate class.

There is no doubt that this important contribution will be appreciated by all hospitals and others who are interested in proper records for the sick and injured. This is the author's sixth book.

Dr. Black will discuss this subject at the coming meeting of the American College of Surgeons in Chicago next month.

The Pastoral Helpers of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Everett Hymes Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Myrtle Blanford assisting.

The meeting opened by singing "Bringing In the Sheaves," followed by the 23rd Psalm in concert. Scripture lesson read by Mrs. Hymes. Sixteen members responding to roll call by giving a verse of Scripture.

The society voted to hold their October meeting at the Christian Home for the Aged in Jacksonville.

The society also voted to donate a ton of coal for use at the church.

A Bible verse contest was held with Mrs. Rosella Smith and Mrs. Laurence Brockhouse winners.

Song, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

Benediction.

During the social hour lovely refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Craig of Woodson spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Ham.

NRA MUST WIN OR U. S. FACES ROUGH SAILING

Mt. Vernon, Ill., Sept. 29.—(AP)—Failure of the NRA program may result in Fascism. Dr. Clarence P. McClelland, president of MacMurray College, Jacksonville, warned last night in an address before delegates of the Southern Illinois Methodists Episcopal Conference here.

Dr. McClelland urged full support of the NRA movement stating here in America you have the privilege of volunteering your support while in Russia and Germany the people are being forced to back their governments.

The speaker who recently returned from Europe where he made a study of economic and political conditions said that in his opinion there is far more bitterness and tension overseas than before the World War.

He ascribed the political unrest as the result of the decline of democracy in all European countries except France and Switzerland.

Dictatorship, Communism and Fascism are the result of the fall of democracy in Europe, he said.

Dr. McClelland said he believed war was imminent in Europe.

"They have more armed camps than before the World War," he said.

From his observations, the speaker said the only restraining factors against a major conflict in Europe is the memory of the World War and the League of Nations.

If a foreigner becomes naturalized in the United States after his children have reached their majority, the children do not become citizens by virtue of their father's naturalization; they must take out their own papers.

BEE HUNTERS OF JERSEY COUNTY BEGIN BUSINESS

Jerseyville, Sept. 29.—Bee hunters of Jersey county have been busily engaged during the past week in selecting prospective sites for their operations when the weather conditions are suitable.

A common practice employed by local hunters of bee trees is to place a small piece of honey comb in a suitable locality. This bait attracts the wild bees and when the wild bees leave the comb to return to their hives the hunter follows their flight as far as possible and continues in that direction until the tree from whence the bee came has been located. The bee tree hunter then marks the tree with his particular brand or notch in the bark, and the matter is dismissed until later in the season when he returns at the end of the honey flow and cuts the tree.

The honey flow will continue through the remainder of September and far into October pending the coming of a killing frost. There has been a good flow of golden rod honey the past two months, local bee keepers announce. The honey flow of the entire season has varied in different localities of the county.

Some bee keepers report an excellent flow, while others report that their bees will not make enough to carry them through the coming winter season. Some time ago, State Inspector Charles Mackelden of this city indicated that there might be a serious shortage of pollen for the bees this winter which would mean starvation for many colonies.

The presence of so many wild bees in the vicinity of Calhoun county and western Jersey has made it possible for foul brood to spread to certain areas. The state inspectors have been giving excellent control of the colonies in the district maintained by bee keepers. The bee tree and colony in the timber is another matter, however. The colony in the timber may become infected and the bees working in conjunction with bees from the keeper's colony may infect the latter it is said and thus create infection among the members of the bee keeper's hives.

DRAG CREEK BUT FAIL TO LOCATE MISSING VETERAN

Jerseyville, Sept. 29.—Search for the body of Henry Dalton, 33 year old resident of the Spankey vicinity, was abandoned about three o'clock Thursday afternoon. It was reported Wednesday evening that Dalton had probably fallen from a bridge into the waters of the Macoupin creek near Spankey. Coroner William E. Hopper and other Jersey county officers went to the locality Wednesday evening to conduct an investigation and search for the body.

Coroner Hopper returned to the scene early Thursday morning and conducted a search for the body. The creek was dragged many times with the assistance of three motor boats for towing the drag lines.

All efforts proved useless and the search was abandoned by the official who stated Thursday evening that he believed the disappearance of the aged man was due to some other cause.

The invention of dancing was ascribed to the god Thoth by the ancient Egyptians.

FEDERATED CLUB MEETING CALLED FOR OCTOBER 6TH

White Hall, Sept. 29.—Mrs. A. W. Schimmel of Pittsfield, president of the Twentieth District Federation of Women's Clubs, has called a board meeting to be held in the Colonial Inn in Jacksonville Friday, Oct. 6 beginning at 11 o'clock.

The "Good Will" class of the Methodist Sunday school held the September meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. A. Hamilton, 3 West Bridge street, with twenty members present. Mrs. Hamilton was assisted by Mrs. J. E. Short, Mrs. Marford Baldwin and Mrs. T. E. A. Giller. It was voted to hold a dollar social, and those not caring to earn their dollar are to give a supper. A nominating committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. Fred Motts, Mrs. T. N. Rose and Mrs. John Stull. The election will be held in November.

The members and constituency of the Methodist church will give a reception and pot luck supper in the church on Wednesday evening, Oct. 4, to get acquainted with the new minister and his family, Rev. and Mrs. Alfred E. Linfield, who moved here this week from Sidney.

Ruth and Paul Woods, children of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Woods of Hillview, are ill at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Sylvester Edwards south of White Hall, suffering with mild cases of measles. Mr. Woods is superintendent of the Hillview schools.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

BOB WARING, a millionaire, and JOAN WARING, a Memphis girl, are attracted to each other on the train, en route to Memphis. Joan has left college before graduation to assist her family in a financial emergency. Bob is coming to Memphis in connection with construction of a southern branch of his father's mills.

Bob speaks to Joan but, thinking she is starting a flirtation, she rebuffs him. He asks the station agent for the girl's name and at the station hears members of her family call her "Joan." He loses sight of her but tells a friend, DUKE TURNER, that he is determined to find her.

Because of the family's difficulties Joan's sister, PAT, 18 years old, has gone to work. BENNY, the 16-year-old brother, is an invalid and BILL, the older brother, works in a garage.

Pleasure-loving Pat declares her intention of marrying for money to escape the privations and hardships of her mother's life. She asks Joan if she has met any men who interest her. Joan, a member of the Y. M. C. A., answers: "Well, one!"

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER II

PAT cried, "Oh, Joan, tell me about him! Are we going to have a meet in our family?" "Not if you're waiting for me. Pat, he was one of those conceited men. Well, maybe not conceited—just handsome and impudent and used to having his own way. You know the kind."

"What are you trying to tell me? Have you really met somebody?"

"I met him on the train. That is—I didn't really meet him. We just talked and I ran away from him when I saw you all coming. You know he was so perfectly sure he had attached me. But he was really wonderful. Pat! Handsome and sort of rugged, like he had played football or planned big bridges and helped build them."

Joan was dressed now, looking very smart in her tweed suit with a small, dark hat hugging her cloudy hair.

"Now," she said, "I'm going out to get a job."

This confidence carried her through the morning, but by noon much of her assurance was gone. At lunch time she sat in the Little Tea Shop. It had been a discouraging morning. Professor Jayne was speaking at a principals' conference and both Professor Hartson and Professor Wilson were attending it.

JOAN had driven downtown. She parked the battered old family car near Cassitt library and walked over to a business exchange.

Just as well have several fairs in the fire. Any kind of work would be preferable to going back home and reporting failure.

Only a few days before her mother's letter had come, revealing the difficulties Mrs. Waring had written: "Bill and Sara have decided to be married in June, dear, which means Bill must save pennies. He is 28 now, you know, and Sara is 25. And they've waited a long time. Bill is afraid he'll lose her if he waits any longer."

When she had finished the next paragraph Joan had put the letter aside for a moment and walked to the window. Without really seeing it, she stared at the campus, white with snow.

Her mother had written "Benny's trouble, whatever it is, doesn't get any better. I'm afraid he needs rest." He is looking very thin and the doctor advised taking him out of school in-

Pat said, "What are you trying to tell me?"

definitely."

It was then Joan decided to return home. She had packed that night.

Things must have been hard for mother ever to write that letter. She had been doing things for them all their lives, sacrificing to make the two years at Miss Huntington's possible for Joan. She had wanted her to meet the right people. And worrying through somehow while Joan was at Holbrook Hall. Mother's face had grown old and tired, sacrificing for her children. It was all wrong.

Mother had had so little happiness. Marrying father had been a mistake. Aunt Maude had told Joan all about it when she was 16. How pretty mother had been, and happy, in the little Mississippi town where she sang in the church choir. Father, passing through the town, had come to the church. One of the few times in his life, Aunt Maude had guessed. He fell in love with mother and they were very happy for a short while until he began drinking again. Mother had known about father's drinking and gambling, but had thought she could reform him.

No girl, now, would ever think that. Girls who married such men today did it because they expected to change things.

THEY had lived in the big, old Waring place after father's parents died. The older Waring had never been very cordial to mother, but she hadn't talked about it. And their pictures, in massive, old frames, were still hanging in the gloomy old room which had once been the family library.

Joan could scarcely remember the time when they had not lived in the old house. And she had only a dim recollection of the tragic, terrible time when father had brought home to them dead. He had shot himself, but it was not until later that mother had learned about the money he had taken.

After that the few people in the neighborhood who had been friendly stopped coming. Then the "best families" were moving out of the street and building beautiful homes in suburban sections. Now, with the exception of the Waring, the entire block was filled with boarding houses.

But her mother had managed, somehow, to give them music and dancing lessons and they had kept up an appearance of comfortable living on the rental from the farm. People had forgotten about father after a while and they had had some happy times at school.

"I'm going to make up to mother for everything as much as I can," Joan thought as she walked along Madison. The important thing, looming larger than anything else just then, was finding a job.

The woman at the business exchange listened to Joan's brief recital of accomplishments with a speculative look in her eye and then shoved an application blank in front of her.

"Fill that out in the waiting room, please," she said crisply. "And leave it with the girl at the desk." She added slowly, "I'm going to be frank, Miss Waring. I think you're wasting your time looking for clerical work. There are so many others trained for it and there are so many places you'd fit better."

Her tone was firm, but friendly, and there was a smile in her eyes.

"You'll find something, I'm sure," she said.

JOAN had understood what she meant when she stared down at the questions on the blank form: "State experience, comptometer machine, bookkeeping machine, adding machine. Have you ever been bonded?" They went on down the length of two pages.

Joan had come to the tea room, more expensive than some places she could have chosen, because she felt weary and discouraged. It helped to see smart, prosperous people. Made you forget for a moment that the world, as far as you personally were concerned, had turned topsy-turvy.

She finished her sandwich and hot tea and drew on her gloves. People were coming in larger numbers now that the noon hour had arrived. She recognized a group in one corner of the room. Marion Conner, Lillian West, Valerie Robertson. Two young men entered and took a table not far from her. The man facing her was Duke Turner. She had been in his class years ago in Bruce school. He couldn't have been more than 12 then. Of course, he had long since forgotten. The other man—

No, it couldn't be! Yes, it was the audacious young man of the train. He was not five feet away, his back turned to her. Joan would have to pass him to reach the cashier's desk.

Bob was digging down in his pocket. He drew out a blueprint. "I'll show you just what we have in mind," he said.

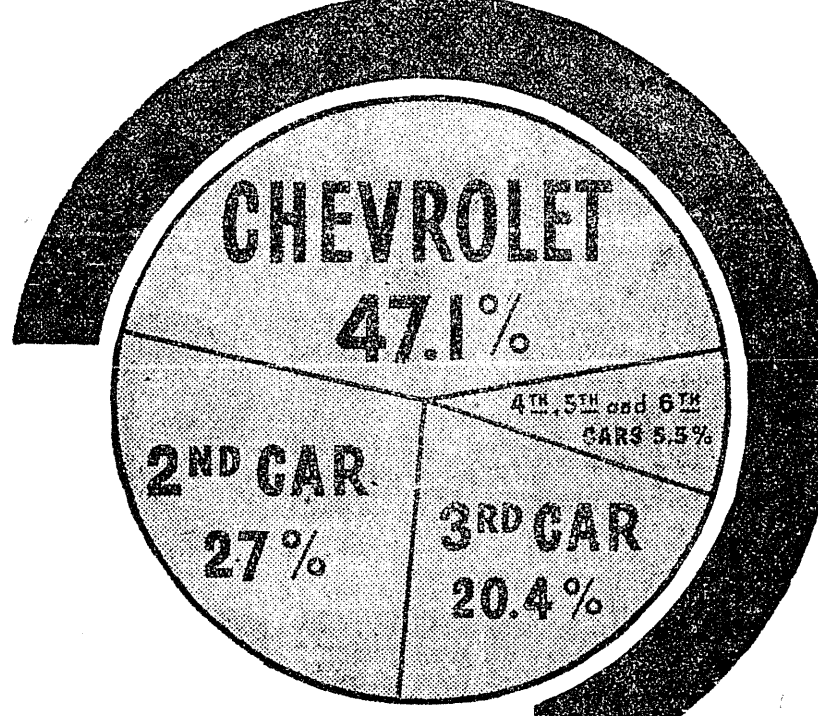

"Just a minute, Bob." Duke interrupted. "There's a darned pretty girl at a table back of you. I knew her once, I think. She was in my class at grammar school. Funny, I can't remember her first name. Last name was—Waring, I believe."

"And some?"

"Someone else is girl crazy." "Aren't we all? What were you saying about the plant?"

Bob spread out the print. Joan got to her feet. She was trembling, but she pressed her hat down more firmly and marched bravely by the two at the table.

Can there be any stronger recommendation for a car than this

CHEVROLET

America can't be fooled when it comes to spotting the best "buy" in any field. America knows too much about motor cars for that. So when one certain car wins almost as many buyers as the next two put together, you know the answer: IT MUST BE BETTER. And that's what the new Chevrolet Six most certainly is.

Better looking—it has long, sleek, aer-streamed lines—Fisher's smartest styling. Chevrolet has better bodies—they're built not just of steel alone, but of steel reinforced by a sturdy hardwood frame. Chevrolet has a better engine—six cylinders for lowest gas and oil consumption, cushion balancing for killing vibration. And Chevrolet gives better value—a long line-up of features, including the Starterator, Syncro-Mesh gear-shift, Free Wheeling, which no other low-priced car can match.

Now, in September, is the time to start thinking about a new car for winter! And when you do so, think of the way Chevrolet is leading all other cars in sales. What more could you possibly ask as a recommendation for a car than that?

BARGE ASSEMBLED BY STEEL BRIDGE CO. AT MEREDOSIA

The finishing touches are being put on the large river barge of the Illinois Steel Bridge Co. The barge was taken to Meredosia several days ago and is being assembled on the river bank. The construction is practically completed, and the barge will be ready for launching in about two weeks.

The big boat will have a capacity of 300 tons of freight. It is made of fabricated steel, prepared at the local steel bridge plant. It is an enterprise undertaken by the local firm, and will be sold or used to transport company products on the river.

If the barge proves successful, others may be constructed by the local firm. With the completion of the deep waterway from the lakes to the gulf, water transportation offers a new avenue for business expansion.

She became ill the past week and was admitted to the Jerseyville Hospital Sunday morning. Her death occurred in the hospital. Funeral arrangements were incomplete Thursday evening.

Levy $25,000 Taxes
A meeting of the non high school board of education of Jersey county was held in the office of County Superintendent of Schools L. E. Groppe. During the session the annual tax levy for the coming year was made and a total amount of $25,000 was levied.

During the meeting the following claims of high schools were allowed: Grafton high school, $7,808.38 for 68 students; Jersey Township high school, $10,814.04, 93 students; Fieldon high school, $1,617.10, 29 students; Wood River high school, $1,119.15, 1 student; Kane high school, $286.18, 2 students; Madara high school, $1,858.66, 19 students; Carrollton high school, $12,611.11, 1 student attending one month; Piasa high school, $270, 1 student; Rockbridge community high school, $161.43, 1 student; Alton high school, $1,467.50, 14 students; University high school at Urbana, $50, 1 student; Brighton high school, $103.34, 1 student; Hardin high school, $153.13.

Many Wheat Applications
A complete report of the wheat control program in Jersey county has not been obtained as yet due to the last minute rush experienced at the local headquarters in the Farm Bureau office.

An incomplete report shows that there have been 410 applications received, representing 14,961 acres of wheat or 303,760 bushels which is 66 per cent of the three year average of wheat raised in Jersey County.

According to the incomplete estimate, there are 8,472 acres of wheat not yet reported.

No official notice had been received until Thursday noon of an extension of time in which applications may be signed. Notice of meetings for the election of permanent directors of the organization in the county are being prepared and will be mailed out this week-end. This notice will also contain a statement of the maximum, minimum and contracted acreages of wheat for 1933. Contracts will be forthcoming just as soon as the county organization has been completed and the applications passed on.

BLUEBOYS BEAT SHURTLEFF; TIGERS WIN THIRD

Sweeney Scores Touchdown in Last Minute; Make Ten First Downs to Four For Pioneers

Touchdown hungry. Illinois College's blue covered team waited until the last three minutes before they satisfied their appetites with a spectacular drive, climaxing when Paul Sweeney, the Illinois rubberman, bounded over the Shurtleff goal line with one Shurtleff tackler hanging on to his heels with only a half minute to play to win the game 6 to 0. Sweeney's touchdown run, only three yards long, was made through a mass of Shurtleff players who pulled over to block the play, but were unable to find the elusive Blueboy.

Denied four times in the first half, and once in the second half, the Blueboys put on their final drive after brilliant pass from Pacetti to Sweeney, and Sweeney's run of 25 yards through a broken field to the Shurtleff 18 yard line. Sweeney twisted out of the grasp of one Pioneer tackler and raced on 15 yards before he was finally brought down when he attempted to pass. A broken field to the Shurtleff 18 yard line. Sweeney twisted out of the grasp of one Pioneer tackler and raced on 15 yards before he was finally brought down when he attempted to pass. A broken field to the Shurtleff 18 yard line. Sweeney twisted out of the grasp of one Pioneer tackler and raced on 15 yards before he was finally brought down when he attempted to pass.

Tony Pacetti set the Blueboys off on their touchdown drive when he caught a Shurtleff punt on his own 28 yard line and cut across the field for a 20 yard run back, putting the ball down on the Illinois 48 yard line. Sweeney took over the signal calling job at this point, and on the first play Pacetti made a yard when he failed to find a pass receiver open, and ran for the goal. Pacetti shot a pass to Sweeney for five yards, the pass came into the flat zone, and Sweeney tore out for the side line.

A Shurtleff tackler hit him around the shoe tops, but Sweeney gave a couple tugs and a twist, freed himself, and raced down the sideline, jumping over the tackler's head. Sweeney cut back to the line, where he checked his stride for a minute to straight arm one Shurtleff tackler, and three Pioneers hit him from behind, bringing him down on the Shurtleff 15 yard line.

Sweeney carried the ball on two successive downs, gaining three yards at each clip. Pacetti took the ball on the next down, climbed over it through a pack of Shurtleff tacklers, moving, straining and pulling, and every curve of his strength to put the ball down on the three yard line.

Four times the Blueboys were within easy speaking distance of the goal line in the first half, but each time something happened to prevent them from getting points. Three straight first downs after Shurtleff punted to them following the kick off put the ball on the Shurtleff 25 yard line, where the Blueboys acquired a 15 yard penalty for holding. An incomplete pass ended this opportunity to score. Roy Colin and John Novicki set the stage for the next drive when Pacetti booted the ball from his own 38 yard line to the Shurtleff 48 yard line, where the Shurtleff safety man touched the ball. Colin and Novicki jumped on the ball to give the Blueboys a 15 yard penalty, but four downs failed to add any distance toward the goal.

In the second quarter the Blueboys again advanced to Shurtleff territory, getting to the 22 yard line before their offense broke up. This time substitutes raced onto the field to put fresh line in the attack, but Shurtleff's stubborn defense refused to yield, and took the ball on downs where the play started.

A forward pass started the fourth downs, Pacetti throwing one to DiCenso for 17 yards to put the ball on the Shurtleff 29-yard line. DiCenso made nine yards on the first play and Woods made four yards on two plays. DiCenso failed to gain a pass and was incomplete, ending the threat. Illinois partially blocked a punt on Shurtleff's 16-yard line, Woods covering the ball on the Shurtleff 24-yard line. Pacetti lost 20 yards when he was tackled far back of his line trying to make a forward pass, the half ending when Shurtleff ran one play.

Shurtleff Makes Threat Shurtleff made its one and only serious threat at the start of the second half, smashing through the Illinois line and tossing passes right and left to bring the ball to the Illinois 13-yard line where the threat broke up under determined defensive play. Shurtleff made two first downs in a row to get the ball into position for a touchdown, recovering an Illinois fumble in mid-field to get the ball. Abbott, Harshany and Jones made the ground in the drive, Jones tossing a pass to Baxter to get six of the yards. An incomplete pass ended their assault.

The Blueboys moved the ball back into Shurtleff territory when Bob Miller, Illinois center, recovered a fumble on Illinois' 45-yard line. Pacetti threw a forward pass for twenty yards to Roy Colin to put the ball in position for another touchdown, but after Shurtleff had given Illinois five yards for offside, DiCenso lost ten yards when a Pioneer tackle broke through the Blueboy line, the Blueboys finally ended this attempt on the Shurtleff 40-yard line, losing 11 yards on the series of downs. Shurtleff booted the ball into the Blueboy end zone, but Illinois booted back.

Shurtleff failed to gain, and the following kick set the stage for the Blueboy touchdown march.

Illinois made 10 first downs to four for Shurtleff during the game, and during the first half gained a total of 110 yards to 23 for Shurtleff, not counting off yards lost from scrimmages and forward passes which failed to materialize.

The Blueboys were solid on defense, but attempted to keep the Blueboys on offense effectively.

HILLMEN WIN FROM PALMYRA, MO., 6-0

Win for First Time in Four Years With Touchdown in Last Three Minutes of Play—Ladow and Capps Feature Game.

Pleasant Hill, Sept. 29.—(Special)—Breaking a three year losing streak, Pleasant Hill this afternoon defeated Palmyra, Mo., 6 to 0 with a touchdown in the last three minutes of play. The winning touchdown came when Pleasant Hill blocked a Palmyra punt on the Palmyra 15 yard line, with Daniels smashing over for the marker.

Outgaining Palmyra through the afternoon, but unable to pierce their stubborn defense when an opportunity presented itself for a touchdown, the final opportunity was greeted with a burst of cheering not seen before this season. The entire team ripped into the Palmyra defense, making steady gains possible.

Pleasant Hill made eight first downs to four for the visitors. Capps kept the Palmyra backs guessing with well placed punts, but Shanks, Palmyra left halfback made three long dashes from scrimmage. He covered 30 yards twice and once went 35 yards before being halted down.

Leo Suter returned to the game after sustaining a slight injury, and featured the Pleasant Hill attack with some neat open field running. The line-ups: Palmyra Pos. Pleasant Hill Bells probably will be brought out by some of these football teams before long. Quincy wanted to bang a bell on the ball when they played Routh and Cathedral wanted to bang bells and bales of hay and old scrap iron on the I. S. D. backs during yesterday afternoon's game.

Palmyra, incidentally, had taken the first three games these teams have played together during the last four years. Clarence Weir, one of the Illinois College backs, said yesterday that he would be willing to put up some of his family silver on Palmyra, just on general principles.

Brick Young, who refereed the Tiger-Cathedral game yesterday, hustled down to St. Louis to call a football game between Millikin and St. Louis University. From there he will jump to Champaign, where he will call the game between Drake and the U. of I. today.

Just a jaunt for Young. He will be accompanied from St. Louis to Urbana by Howard Millard, who also will play in the Drake-Illini game. They planned to make the trip by plane, but Millard refused. Nothing doing on this airplane business he said.

JERSEYVILLE WINS FROM GREENFIELD

Flamm Breaks Scoreless Tie in Third Period With 45 Yard Run—Tomlinson Gets Two More in Final Period on Line Smashes.

Jerseyville, Sept. 29.—(Special)—Jerseyville entered the competition for the Illinois Valley championship trophy here tonight by rising in the third and fourth quarters to score three touchdowns after Greenfield held them scoreless during the first half. Flamm's 45 yard run in the third period broke the scoreless tie, and Jerseyville won by an 18 to 0 score.

Threatening in the first half, but never able to overcome the Greenfield defense, Jerseyville scored its first touchdown from the middle of the field when Flamm shot through a tackle, cut back sharply to reverse his field and then sped for the goal line.

Twice more Jerseyville pounded its way deep into Greenfield territory for touchdowns. Tomlinson, big Jerseyville fullback, smashed through the Greenfield line both times from the 12 yard line to get touchdowns.

Jerseyville used passes to gain a large part of their ground, while Greenfield confined its attacking almost entirely to ground maneuvers.

Braves Wallop Dodgers 4 to 1

Brooklyn, Sept. 29.—(P)—The Boston Braves, striving for a place in the National league's first division and a share in the World Series receipts, cut the margin of the fourth place 3 to 1 over the Cardinals to a half game today as they defeated Brooklyn 4 to 1 in the re-play of yesterday's game. The Braves and the Cards each have two games to play.

Timely hitting along with Brooklyn errors and some brilliant relief pitching by Fred Frankhouse made the victory an easy one for the Braves. They scored twice in the first inning after Frey made an error; another in the fifth with the aid of Wilson's fumble and a wild pitch and another in the seventh on Powers' wild throw.

The Braves won the season's series, 13-9.

HEADS NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF U. S. POSTMASTERS

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 29.—(P)—Arthur L. Johnson of Rockford, Ill., was elected president of the National Postmasters' Association today at the concluding session of the 33rd annual convention.

Other officers named were: E. J. Huxtable, Douglas, Ariz., first vice-president; Michael F. O'Connell, Cleveland, O., second vice-president; William H. McCarthy, San Francisco, third vice-president; and Robert B. Haggood, Bradford, Pa., secretary-treasurer.

French Lick, Ind., was chosen for the 1934 meeting place.

Resolutions were adopted requesting the postmaster general to exert his efforts in securing a return of the two-cent rate for letters as soon as economic conditions warranted and asking for the resumption of the thirty-day vacation with pay to postal employees.

Suiter Scores Five Markers As Tigers Romp to Third Win In Row Over Cathedral 40-0

Led by the invincible Suiter, the Tigers yesterday afternoon chalked up their third straight victory of the season by crushing the heavy Cathedral high eleven of Springfield by a 40 to 0 score in a game played on the School for the Deaf grounds. Clicking smoothly and with deadly precision, Coach Burns' Tigers uncovered a hard-driving, line-smashing attack that carried them rough-shod over the visiting team.

Ripping the line to shreds and flashing around the ends, Suiter scored a pair of touchdowns in the first period, two more in the second, one in the third. Suiter fully demonstrated that he knows what to do with the ball to minute effects in his hands, and only twice during the game did he fail to gain when he had charge of the pigskin. His longest run of the battle was 60 yards, when he went around his right end with a reception, intercepted a pass from the line and ran away easily from the Cathedral safety. His other touchdowns were made from one run of 25 yards, one of 22, and two six-yard drives through the line.

After Suiter scored his fourth marker, Cox took his place, and a short time later intercepted a Cathedral pass and scurried 45 yards down the side of the field for a touchdown. The reception was splendidly played, the Tiger who he tackled, Cain, behind the goal line near the end of the game to score a safety. The four Tiger demons, Orino, Beard, Suiter and Riha, behind a line that holds the ball, make up great machines that can and do turn out touchdowns.

I.S.D. gained 339 yards from scrimmage to 41 for Cathedral, and made 10 first downs to one for the visitors. The game was played in the only four penalties being called by the officials. I. S. D. was forced to punt only twice and were held for downs but twice, once within a yard of the end stripe.

Cathedral won the toss, chose to receive, and took the ball on the kick-off on their own 24-yard stripe. Three tries at the Tiger wall failed to gain and Foster punted to mid-field. Suiter dashed around right through the first down line, and from Suiter to Adams put the ball on the five-yard line, and Suiter crashed left tackle for the touchdown. Plunge for the extra point was short.

Cathedral again received but was forced to punt as their offense failed to click. The Tiger backs then carried the ball to the 22-yard mark and Suiter cut through left tackle for his second marker. The plunge for the extra point was short.

The point was made, but the Tiger line was set for the opening seconds of the second quarter when Rih intercepted a Cathedral pass on their 40-yard line. Beard swung around left end for 15 yards, and Suiter went around left end for 13 yards right end for the Tiger 10-yard score. A pass from Suiter to Gordon was good for the extra point.

Cathedral took the ball on their 25-yard line on the next kick-off, and Suiter went around left end for 13 yards for the only first down his team could get out. The Tiger line held and rushed Foster on the punt. The ball going to the Tigers on their 17-yard line. Beard picked up the ball and rushed the line, Suiter swept around his right end, reversed the field on a dazzling play to mark up the Tigers' fourth score. Cox went in for Suiter and drop-kicked the extra point.

Cathedral again failed to get anything against the bang-up football the Tigers were playing and Beard took a short punt on the Cathedral 45-yard line back to the 35-yard line. Cathedral bucked up and held for downs. Cox then intercepted a Cathedral pass on the visitors' 45-yard line and with perfect interference dashed for the goal line. The drop-kick by Cox went wide. Several Tiger substitutes then went in to give the regulars a chance to rest. The half ended with Cathedral in possession of the ball on their own 28-yard line.

The I. S. D. regulars were back in the line by pass which was wide and Cathedral kicked-off. Another Tiger drive was cut short when Rih fumbled on his 42-yard line.

Cathedral recovered. The visitors again failed to make more than a yard in the three tries at the goal line. I. S. D. 20-yard mark. Beard, Riha and Suiter drove through center of the line for the Tigers' touchdown. A plunge for the extra point.

In the final period, Cathedral attempted an aerial attack but the passing was wild and the Tigers again forced the visitors to punt. The four Tiger demons then went in, smashing drive down the field, ended on the two and one-half yard mark when the Cathedral line took on new life for a few minutes. The visitors then attempted to get out of the line by pass which was wide and the game tried with the Tiger in possession of the ball in the middle of the field.

Justice Department plans for dry era

Washington, Sept. 29.—(AP)—Justice department officials have worked out a plan which they believe would remove the last lingering doubt as to when, if prohibition is repealed, the last moment of the dry era will arrive. In spite of a Supreme Court decision to the contrary, some have insisted that regardless of when the 36th state ratifies the 21st amendment, repealing the 18th, the dry laws will remain effective until the formal proclamation of the secretary of state is issued.

Under the justice department's scheme, the proclamation would be given the same date as that of the 36th state's ratification. If this plan is used—and a final decision has yet to be made—officials say there would be no doubt that prosecutions brought for violations after the 36th ratification would not stand in the courts.

However, most officials of the department and eminent constitutional lawyers in private practice here as well, believe there can be no question but that the 21st amendment will become operative as soon as ratified, regardless of the proclamation.

Owl beetles carry a pair of conspicuous eye-spots on their backs to frighten their enemies; the real eyes are quite small.

CHINCH BUGS SEEK HIDEOUTS; THREAT TO CROPS SERIOUS

Urbana, Ill., Sept. 29. — Having wrought ruin throughout the corn belt during the past two seasons chinch bugs are now going into hibernation in such thick numbers that Illinois might easily lose 25 per cent of its next year's corn crop, or more than $46,000,000, on the basis of the ten-year average annual farm value of the grain, according to W. P. Flint, chief entomologist of the Illinois Natural History Survey and of the experiment station, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

A campaign of warfare against the chinch-bug carryover, which will be largest since 1887, was mapped out at a recent conference which Flint and other entomologists of the central west held at Hamilton, Ill. The program covers the coming winter, spring and summer.

Fall plowing and the burning of hibernating quarters are to be stressed during the fall and winter campaign. The attack upon the bugs next spring will be directed along the lines of planting cropping systems so that they will include as many crops as possible upon which the bugs do not feed. Some reliance will be placed upon chinch-bug resistant varieties of corn. At small grain harvest time one of the bugs can be killed by the use of barberry 73 counties, or about three-fourths of the state, are now infested with chinch bugs, Flint reported. The territory includes all of the state except a band of counties in the extreme southern part and a narrower strip of counties at the extreme north.

The fact that Illinois farmers have had two bad chinch-bug years does not mean the end of their troubles, Flint pointed out. Outbreaks of the bugs usually last from two to four years, he explained. Some former

Illinois outbreaks not as extensive as the present one have persisted for as long as five years, he said.

ROOSEVELT GIVES NO INDICATION OF CHANGE IN PLANS

Hyde Park, N. Y., Sept. 29. —(P)—All was quiet along the Hudson today, with no indications of any change in the tactics of President Roosevelt's credit expansion-recovery drive.

The feeling here was that the chief executive would insist that bankers and conservators of closed banks be given their opportunity to put American wealth to work before he resorted to any issue of currency.

Reports of currency inflation, reaching the summer White House, met unofficially. The president himself said nothing.

Tonight he will speak at the centennial observance of the Hyde Park Methodist Episcopal church. Yesterday he attended a christening of Hyde Park Episcopal church and became godfather for 9-month-old Catherine Earl Looker, daughter of Earl Looker, writer.

Chicago, Sept. 29. —(P)—The embarrassment trial of Ernest J. Stevens tinued today with defense attorneys

NELSON H. GREENE NAMED RECEIVER OF AYERS BANK

Tallula Man Succeeds Frank W. McRoberts; To Assume Duties Monday

The appointment of Nelson H. Greene of Tallula as receiver of the Ayers National bank has been approved and Mr. Greene will enter upon his new duties here next Monday. It was learned yesterday that Mr. Greene was the only one of the five preparatory to assuming his new post here next week. He will succeed Frank W. McRoberts, who was appointed shortly after the failure of the bank.

Mr. Greene's banking experience extends over a long period of years, during which time he has held office positions in Moline banks, and has served as state bank examiner. He is a past president of the Illinois Bankers Association.

BLACK TO FACE CHECK CHARGE IN NEBRASKA

Kirby Black waived extradition to Lincoln, Neb., to face a check charge after a hearing yesterday held in the center of attention in circuit court here. After morning session in which several attorneys cited reasons why or not Black should be turned over to a Nebraska constable, Judge Wright adjourned court until 2 o'clock when the hearing was resumed.

At the afternoon session Black was permitted his freedom pending the fact that the warrant had not been properly drawn. However, Black had been given his liberty only a few minutes before he was served with another, and he then waived extradition and left with Nebraska officers to face the charge lodged against him.

The State had a copy of the original warrant charging Black with an alleged crime at Lincoln, and the Governor's warrant for his return to Nebraska. State's Attorney W. H. Absher pointed to these as reasons why the prisoner should be extradited, defending the regularity of the procedure which brought about the arrest and incarceration of Black.

Attorneys for Black who filed and obtained a writ of habeas corpus contend that the warrant is insufficient to hold Black, in that it states that he is charged with "no account check." There is no charge of this kind in the statutes. Black's attorneys asserted Friday morning. They also pointed to the fact that there had not been a return on the warrant as a reason why extradition should not be granted. Following the argument Black was dismissed only to be rearrested.

Black was arrested several days ago on request of Nebraska authorities who allege that he gave a check for more than one hundred dollars to a Lincoln druggist last December. The check was on a Springfield, Ill., bank and was returned with a notation that Black had no account there. His attorneys are Bellatti, Samueli and Moriarty.

BOUGHT SHIPS LOW, AWARDED HUGE GRANTS

Ocean Mail Contracts Are Investigated By Committee

By Cecil B. Dickson Associated Press Staff Writer Washington, Sept. 29.—(AP)—A list of subsidies, totalling $45,230,151, awarded the Export Steamship Corporation during the Coolidge and Hoover administrations, was placed in the record of the senate committee investigating ocean mail contracts today by Senator Black (D. Ala.) chairman.

Concluding the investigation into the first of fifty steamship lines that have ocean mail contracts, Senator Black, chairman of the committee, also put figures in the record to show the export line bought 23 shipping board vessels for $1,351,307 that had cost the government $42,114,117.

E. V. Nevin of New York, treasurer of the Export corporation, under examination said the line owed the government $1,246,188 and that it was indebted to the Central Hanover Bank in New York and the Philadelphia National bank to the amount of $1,100,000.

He said the New York Shipbuilding company which was awarded the contract for the construction of four $2,000,000 ships, had guaranteed payment to the banks of $400,000 of the notes.

Questioned by Black, the witness testified the company was in a worse financial condition than in 1930, when he said, former Secretary Lamont approved an extension of a loan to the line over the objections of legal and financial advisers of the shipping board that Henry Herberman, president, had withdrawn funds from the treasury "illegally."

The line was awarded a mail contract by the post office department in 1923 which called for the payment by the department of $1,044,800 a year for the construction of four faster ships for the Atlantic-Mediterranean service. Nevin testified former Postmaster General Walter Brown amended the contract in 1926 to increase the annual payment to $2,185,000.
